But the end is not yet. Judge Book-STAYER must be findleated by his peers or deposed from the seat which they may hold him to have disgraced before the issues of the Frack case are concluded.

Moreover, is BENJAMIN WRIGHT to remain in the unruffled possession of a position in a court after his councetion and passesmenteries are useful in this way. with this contemptible imbroglio? Let justice be full and sweeping.

Benator Call, of Florida, has a patriotic soul. He is said to have declared that but for his belief that Florida would suffer from such a course he would have shot on the spot United States Marshal MIRELL, of Jacksonville, when the latter told him he was "a -- dirty puppy."

Mr. MIRKIL, bowever, catalogued Sen ator Call in this way only hypothetically-viz., if he had said certain things about the Marshal which rumor ascribed to him. CALL said he didn't. MIRELL spologized; they shook hands and the gore which had charged the horison faded away like an early mist.

A singular fatality seems, to invest the Sheriffship of Crawford County, Ohio. Six incumbents of that office have met a violent death. To the credit of the county it should be added that decease from an encounter with hot lead does not figure in the mortality record of the fashionable receptions than any other girl of the Sheriff's office. Still, there are men who would feel a little shy about accepting that position in Crawford County.

Togo to sleep during the sermon is one of those weaknesses of the human anima which appeal to mercy. generation largely depends upon the manner in which our girls of to-day are trained. Educate them thoroughly. Assure them that health and happiness do not depend upon riches or marriage, but upon useful, generous and practical lives.

Teach them the one great accomplishment above all others—the art of good housekeeping. In addition to their knowledge of housekeeping our girls should have a trade or profession. It should be one suited to their tastes, and thus afford them congenial occupation as well as a means of profit when necessary.

occupation as well as a means of processary.

As ain, our girls should be readers of great and good books. They should store away useful knowledge which would afford them constant happiness and make them useful to others.

Thus they would be independent, womanly, morally strong and possess an influence that would bless society all about them.

MR. LOUIS MEGROZ. "Besides the cough and sore throat my nose was stopped up so that I could hardly breathe, and I had dull beedaches across my forebead nearly all the time. I was suffering from catarrit. That's what was the matter with me. Well, I went to Dra. McCoy and Wildman three months ago, and under their treatment I got relief right away. I had had catarr for several years.

"I improved right along under the care of Dra. McCoy and Wildman, and now my cough has disappeared. My throat is not sore any more and my head is not stopped up, and I don't have any more headaches. I feel altogether like a different person. I believe that if I hadn't gone to Dra. McCoy and Wildman my cough would have developed into consumption. consumption.

I can say that Drs. McCoy and Wildman have benefited me wonderfully, and as no other doctors did, and their charges are very low and they furnish all medicine. Mr. Megroz lives at 15 West 5 lst and the consumption of the consum

TURNBULL'S SLAYER HELD Hyde Committed Without Bail

for the Coroner's Inquest. Actors, ticket speculators, men about town and a few solid citizens flocked to the Coroner's office this morning, where James F. Hyde, the ticket speculator who shot and killed his business rival, William Turnbull, in front of the Fourteenth Street Theatre Saturday evening, was arraigned before Coroner Levy for a preliminary hearing. Hyde is a short, sturdy man, red-cheeked brown-mustached and regular features, but his good looks were sadly marred by two black eyes, scratched cheeks and muddy clothes. These marks of battle, he said to an Even-ING WORLD reporter, were inflicted by Turnbull during the row before he gas shot Saturday night. s, of Howe & Hummel's firm, ap-Doutsch started the yarn in the Hoffman Hoose Cafe last night. He said that Tuesday night he and Turnbull were striking wine in an uptown resert, when Turnbull said: "Til gamble that I'll live longer than you." Done," said Deutsch; "but how will we divide it? You can't pay when you are we divide it? You can't pay when you are dead.

Then Turnbull made an acceptable proposition, which was that he would insure his life for 25,000 in favor of Deuisch, and vice versa, and so it was done.

The trouble between Turnbull and Hyde was of eight years standing. It originates at the Grand Opera-Honse, when Turnbull chased Hyde out of the lobby with a knife.

Thereafter the men seldon met and never in a business way until Saturday night, when they were both pedding tickets at the Fourteenth Street Theatre.

Turnbull renewed the old quarrel and ounched fields with his fists and an umbrella, until the laster pulled his pisted and chased Mr. Turnbull away forever with a fatal shot.

BETWEEN 5TH AND 6TH AVES. BLOODHOUND DETECTIVES.

Kentucky Officials. Mr. F. L. Brizendine, our efficient City Marshal, has received by express from a convict camp in Alabama two finelytrained bloodhounds, rays the Fulton (Ky.) Graphic. They are only thirteen months old, but have a remarkable scent, after Rube Burrows, the noted and daring train robber, in Alabama, some months ago, and in which chase two of the hounds were killed by the fugitive. He was also in a chase after the murderer of the deputy sheriff at Birmingham, running him seven miles and treeing him.

They are almost as good on the trail of a white man as they are after negroes. They will prove of valuable assistance to Mr. Brizen time, who, as we heard a darky say, is a bloodhound himself in the capture of criminals.
